

All Saints'
Church
— Child's Hill —

GOOD FRIDAY
Liturgy of the Day

Welcome to All Saints'

For over 160 years a community has gathered at All Saints' to worship God and to demonstrate faith at work in our daily lives. Our members come from across the city and from all walks of life and all are welcome to join us as we grow together in our relationship with God and one another. As a church we serve the parish of Child's Hill which goes from Dunstan Road in the North to the Hendon Way / Finchley Road Junction in the South, and from Golders Hill Park in the East to Dersingham Road in the West. All Saints' is open Monday through Thursday as a sacred space for prayer, reflection, and hospitality.

We have our roots in the Catholic traditions of the Church of England, but our worship is contemporary and engaging. Today's service is designed to help us celebrate life, to comfort us where we hurt, and to challenge us where we have grown complacent. Children are an important part of our community. They are always welcome in the service, but there is also a Sunday School during term time which meets in the hall.

Further information about All Saints' can be found on our web site:

Priest in Charge

*The priest enters in silence.
All sit or kneel for a time of silent prayer.*

The Collect

Let us pray.

Almighty Father, look with mercy on this your family for which our Lord Jesus Christ was content to be betrayed and given up into the hands of sinners and to suffer death upon the cross; who is alive and glorified with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

All Amen.

The New Testament Reading

Hebrews 4:14-16; 5:7-9

Since, then, we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast to our confession. For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but we have one who in every respect has been tested as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore approach the throne of grace with boldness, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need. In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to the one who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverent submission. Although he was a Son, he learned obedience through what he suffered; and having been made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him.

This is the word of the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.

Hymn

Please stand for the hymn.

*The hymn number is displayed on the hymn board,
and can be found in the blue hymn book.*

The Passion Reading

John 18 & 19

Priest The Passion of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

Please be seated for the reading of the Passion.

Narr. After Jesus had spoken these words, he went out with his disciples across the Kidron valley to a place where there was a garden, which he and his disciples entered. Now Judas, who betrayed him, also knew the place, because Jesus often met there with his disciples. So Judas brought a detachment of soldiers together with police from the chief priests and the Pharisees, and they came there with lanterns and torches and weapons. Then Jesus, knowing all that was to happen to him, came forward and asked them,

Jesus ‘For whom are you looking?’

Narr. They answered,

All ‘Jesus of Nazareth.’

Narr. Jesus replied,

Jesus ‘I am he.’

Narr. Judas, who betrayed him, was standing with them. When Jesus said to them, ‘I am he’, they stepped back and fell to the ground. Again he asked them,

Jesus ‘For whom are you looking?’

Narr. And they said,

All ‘Jesus of Nazareth.’

Narr. Jesus answered,

Jesus ‘I told you that I am he. So if you are looking for me, let these men go.’

Narr. This was to fulfil the word that he had spoken, ‘I did not lose a single one of those whom you gave me.’ Then Simon Peter, who had a sword, drew it, struck the high priest’s slave, and cut off his right ear. The slave’s name was Malchus. Jesus said to Peter,

Jesus ‘Put your sword back into its sheath. Am I not to drink the cup that the Father has given me?’

Narr. So the soldiers, their officer, and the Jewish police arrested Jesus and bound him. First they took him to Annas, who was the father-in-law of Caiaphas, the high priest that year. Caiaphas was the one who had advised the Jews that it was better to have one person die for the people. Simon Peter and another disciple followed Jesus. Since that disciple was known to the high priest, he went with Jesus into the courtyard of the high priest, but Peter was standing outside at the gate. So the other disciple, who was known to the high priest, went out, spoke to the woman who guarded the gate, and brought Peter in. The woman said to Peter,

Voice ‘You are not also one of this man’s disciples, are you?’

Narr. He said,

Voice ‘I am not.’

Narr. Now the slaves and the police had made a charcoal fire because it was cold, and they were standing round it and warming themselves. Peter also was standing with them and warming himself. Then the high priest questioned Jesus about his disciples and about his teaching. Jesus answered,

Jesus ‘I have spoken openly to the world; I have always taught in synagogues and in the temple, where all the Jews come together. I have said nothing in secret. Why do you ask me? Ask those who heard what I said to them; they know what I said.’

Narr. When he had said this, one of the police standing nearby struck Jesus on the face, saying,

Voice ‘Is that how you answer the high priest?’

Narr. Jesus answered,

Jesus ‘If I have spoken wrongly, testify to the wrong. But if I have spoken rightly, why do you strike me?’

Narr. Then Annas sent him bound to Caiaphas the high priest. Now Simon Peter was standing and warming himself. They asked him,

Voice 'You are not also one of his disciples, are you?'

Narr. He denied it and said,

Voice 'I am not.'

Narr. One of the slaves of the high priest, a relative of the man whose ear Peter had cut off, asked,

Voice 'Did I not see you in the garden with him?'

Narr. Again Peter denied it, and at that moment the cock crowed. Then they took Jesus from Caiaphas to Pilate's headquarters. It was early in the morning. They themselves did not enter the headquarters, so as to avoid ritual defilement and to be able to eat the Passover. So Pilate went out to them and said,

Voice 'What accusation do you bring against this man?'

Narr They answered,

All 'If this man were not a criminal, we would not have handed him over to you.'

Narr. Pilate said to them,

Voice 'Take him yourselves and judge him according to your law.'

Narr. The Jews replied,

All 'We are not permitted to put anyone to death.'

Narr This was to fulfil what Jesus had said when he indicated the kind of death he was to die. Then Pilate entered the headquarters again, summoned Jesus, and asked him,

Voice 'Are you the King of the Jews?'

Narr. Jesus answered,

Jesus 'Do you ask this on your own, or did others tell you about me?'

Narr. Pilate replied,

Voice 'I am not a Jew, am I? Your own nation and the chief priests have handed you over to me. What have you done?'

Narr. Jesus answered,

Jesus ‘My kingdom is not from this world. If my kingdom were from this world, my followers would be fighting to keep me from being handed over to the Jews. But as it is, my kingdom is not from here.’

Narr. Pilate asked him,

Voice ‘So you are a king?’

Narr. Jesus answered,

Jesus ‘You say that I am a king. For this I was born, and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice.’

Narr. Pilate asked him,

Voice ‘What is truth?’

Narr. After he had said this, he went out to the Jews again and told them,

Voice ‘I find no case against him. But you have a custom that I release someone for you at the Passover. Do you want me to release for you the King of the Jews?’

Narr. They shouted in reply,

All ‘Not this man, but Barabbas!’

Narr. Now Barabbas was a bandit. Then Pilate took Jesus and had him flogged. And the soldiers wove a crown of thorns and put it on his head, and they dressed him in a purple robe. They kept coming up to him, saying,

All ‘Hail, King of the Jews!’

Narr. and striking him on the face. Pilate went out again and said to them,

Voice ‘Look, I am bringing him out to you to let you know that I find no case against him.’

Narr. So Jesus came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe. Pilate said to them,

Voice ‘Here is the man!’

Narr. When the chief priests and the police saw him, they shouted,

All ‘Crucify him! Crucify him!’

Narr. Pilate said to them,

Voice ‘Take him yourselves and crucify him; I find no case against him.’

Narr. The Jews answered him,

All ‘We have a law, and according to that law he ought to die because he has claimed to be the Son of God.’

Narr. Now when Pilate heard this, he was more afraid than ever. He entered his headquarters again and asked Jesus,

Voice ‘Where are you from?’

Narr. But Jesus gave him no answer. Pilate therefore said to him,

Voice ‘Do you refuse to speak to me? Do you not know that I have power to release you, and power to crucify you?’

Narr. Jesus answered him,

Jesus ‘You would have no power over me unless it had been given you from above; therefore the one who handed me over to you is guilty of a greater sin.’

Narr. From then on Pilate tried to release him, but the Jews cried out,

All ‘If you release this man, you are no friend of the emperor. Everyone who claims to be a king sets himself against the emperor.’

Narr. When Pilate heard these words, he brought Jesus outside and sat on the judge’s bench at a place called The Stone Pavement, or in Hebrew Gabbatha. Now it was the day of Preparation for the Passover; and it was about noon. He said to the Jews,

Voice ‘Here is your King!’

Narr. They cried out,

All 'Away with him! Away with him! Crucify him!'

Narr. Pilate asked them,

Voice 'Shall I crucify your King?'

Narr. The chief priests answered,

All 'We have no king but the emperor.'

Narr. Then he handed him over to them to be crucified. So they took Jesus; and carrying the cross by himself, he went out to what is called The Place of the Skull, which in Hebrew is called Golgotha. There they crucified him, and with him two others, one on either side, with Jesus between them.

Narr. Pilate also had an inscription written and put on the cross. It read, 'Jesus of Nazareth, the King of the Jews.' Many of the Jews read this inscription, because the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city; and it was written in Hebrew, in Latin, and in Greek. Then the chief priests of the Jews said to Pilate,

All 'Do not write, "The King of the Jews", but, "This man said, I am King of the Jews."'

Narr. Pilate answered,

Voice 'What I have written I have written.'

Narr. When the soldiers had crucified Jesus, they took his clothes and divided them into four parts, one for each soldier. They also took his tunic; now the tunic was seamless, woven in one piece from the top. So they said to one another,

All 'Let us not tear it, but cast lots for it to see who will get it.'

Narr. This was to fulfil what the scripture says, 'They divided my clothes among themselves, and for my clothing they cast lots.' And that is what the soldiers did. Meanwhile, standing near the cross of Jesus were his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene. When Jesus saw his mother and the disciple whom he loved standing beside her, he said to his mother,

Jesus 'Woman, here is your son.'

Narr. Then he said to the disciple,

Jesus 'Here is your mother.'

Narr. And from that hour the disciple took her into his own home. After this, when Jesus knew that all was now finished, he said (in order to fulfil the scripture),

Jesus 'I am thirsty.'

Narr. A jar full of sour wine was standing there. So they put a sponge full of the wine on a branch of hyssop and held it to his mouth. When Jesus had received the wine, he said,

Jesus 'It is finished.'

Narr. Then he bowed his head and gave up his spirit. Since it was the day of Preparation, the Jews did not want the bodies left on the cross during the sabbath, especially because that sabbath was a day of great solemnity. So they asked Pilate to have the legs of the crucified men broken and the bodies removed. Then the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first and of the other who had been crucified with him. But when they came to Jesus and saw that he was already dead, they did not break his legs. Instead, one of the soldiers pierced his side with a spear, and at once blood and water came out. (He who saw this has testified so that you also may believe. His testimony is true, and he knows that he tells the truth.) These things occurred so that the scripture might be fulfilled, 'None of his bones shall be broken.' And again another passage of scripture says, 'They will look on the one whom they have pierced.'

After these things, Joseph of Arimathea, who was a disciple of Jesus, though a secret one because of his fear of the Jews, asked Pilate to let him take away the body of Jesus. Pilate gave him permission; so he came and removed his body. Nicodemus, who had at first come to Jesus by night, also came, bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, weighing about a hundred pounds. They took the body of Jesus and wrapped it with the spices in linen cloths, according to the burial custom of the Jews. Now there was a garden in the place where he was crucified, and in the garden there was a new tomb in which no one had ever been laid. And so, because it was the Jewish day of Preparation, and the tomb was nearby, they laid Jesus there.

Priest This is the Passion of the Lord.

A Reflection

After the reflection a period of silence is kept.

The Proclamation of the Cross

Please stand as the cross is carried forward.

The following response is said three times:

This is the wood of the cross,
on which hung the Saviour of the world.

All Come, let us worship.

The Reproaches

Please sit or kneel.

Priest Is it nothing to you, all you who pass by? Look and see if there is any sorrow like my sorrow which was brought upon me, which the Lord inflicted on the day of his fierce anger.

All Holy God, holy and strong, holy and immortal,
have mercy upon us.

Priest O my people, O my Church, what have I done to you, or in what have I offended you? Testify against me. I led you forth from the land of Egypt, and delivered you by the waters of baptism, but you have prepared a cross for your Saviour.

All Holy God, holy and strong, holy and immortal,
have mercy upon us.

Priest I led you through the desert forty years, and fed you with manna. I brought you through tribulation and penitence, and gave you my body, the bread of heaven, but you prepared a cross for your Saviour.

All Holy God, holy and strong, holy and immortal,
have mercy upon us.

Priest What more could I have done for you that I have not done? I planted you, my chosen and fairest vineyard, I made you the branches of my vine; but when I was thirsty, you gave me vinegar to drink, and pierced with a spear the side of your Saviour.

All Holy God, holy and strong, holy and immortal,
have mercy upon us.

Priest I went before you in a pillar of cloud, and you have led me to the judgement hall of Pilate. I scourged your enemies and brought you to a land of freedom, but you have scourged, mocked and beaten me. I gave you the water of salvation from the rock, but you have given me gall and left me to thirst.

All Holy God, holy and strong, holy and immortal,
have mercy upon us.

Priest I gave you a royal sceptre, and bestowed the keys of the kingdom, but you have given me a crown of thorns. I raised you on high with great power, but you have hanged me on the cross.

All Holy God, holy and strong, holy and immortal,
have mercy upon us.

Priest My peace I gave, which the world cannot give, and washed your feet as a sign of my love, but you draw the sword to strike in my name, and seek high places in my kingdom. I offered you my body and blood, but you scatter and deny and abandon me.

All Holy God, holy and strong, holy and immortal,
have mercy upon us.

Priest I sent the Spirit of truth to guide you, and you close your hearts to the Counsellor. I pray that all may be one in the Father and me, but you continue to quarrel and divide. I call you to go and bring forth fruit, but you cast lots for my clothing.

All Holy God, holy and strong, holy and immortal,
have mercy upon us.

Priest I came to you as the least of your brothers and sisters; I was hungry and you gave me no food, I was thirsty and you gave me no drink, I was a stranger and you did not welcome me, naked and you did not clothe me, sick and in prison and you did not visit me.

All Holy God, holy and strong, holy and immortal,
have mercy upon us.

The Veneration of the Cross

A hymn is sung

Please remain seated or kneeling and join in as you would like.

*The hymn number is displayed on the hymn board,
and can be found in the blue hymn book.*

During the hymn you are invited to venerate the cross.

This is an gesture of respect to the cross and all that it represents.

You may choose to venerate the cross by coming forward and bowing to the cross, kissing the cross, or both.

Likewise, you may choose to venerate the cross whilst remaining at your place in prayer, meditating on the meaning of the cross.

All forms of veneration are equally valid and welcome as part of our Good Friday devotion.

Acclamations

Priest We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you,
All because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

Priest This is the wood of the cross,
on which hung the Saviour of the world.

All Come, let us worship.

Priest O Saviour of the world,
who by your cross and precious blood have redeemed us,

All save us and help us, we humbly pray.

Prayers of Intercession

Please remain seated or kneeling for the prayers.

Priest God sent his Son into the world, not to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him. Therefore we pray to our heavenly Father for people everywhere according to their needs.

Let us pray for the Church of God throughout the world: for unity in faith, in witness and in service, for bishops and other ministers, and those whom they serve, for N, our bishop, and the people of this diocese, for all Christians in this place, for those to be baptized, for those who are mocked and persecuted for their faith, that God will confirm his Church in faith, increase it in love, and preserve it in peace.

Lord, hear us.

All Lord, graciously hear us.

Let us pray for the nations of the world and their leaders: for Elizabeth our Queen and the Parliaments of this land, for those who administer the law and all who serve in public office, for all who strive for justice and reconciliation, that by God's help the world may live in peace and freedom.

Lord, hear us.

All Lord, graciously hear us.

Let us pray for God's ancient people, the Jews, the first to hear his word: for greater understanding between Christian and Jew, for the removal of our blindness and bitterness of heart, that God will grant us grace to be faithful to his covenant and to grow in the love of his name.

Lord, hear us.

All Lord, graciously hear us.

Let us pray for those who do not believe the gospel of Christ: for those who have not heard the message of salvation, for all who have lost faith, for the contemptuous and scornful, for those who are enemies of Christ and persecute those who follow him, for all who deny the faith of Christ crucified, that God will open their hearts to the truth and lead them to faith and obedience.

Lord, hear us.

All Lord, graciously hear us.

Let us pray for all those who suffer: for those who are deprived and oppressed, for all who are sick, for those in darkness, in doubt and in despair, in loneliness and in fear, for prisoners, captives and refugees, for the victims of false accusations and violence, for all at the point of death and those who watch beside them, that God in his mercy will sustain them with the knowledge of his love.

Lord, hear us.

All Lord, graciously hear us.

Let us commend ourselves and all God's children to his unfailing love, and pray for the grace of a holy life, that, with all who have died in the peace of Christ, we may come to the fullness of eternal life and the joy of the resurrection.

Lord, hear us.

All Lord, graciously hear us.

The prayers conclude:

Priest O God of unchangeable power and eternal light, look favourably on your whole Church, that wonderful and sacred mystery, and by the tranquil operation of your perpetual providence carry out the work of our salvation: and let the whole world feel and see that things which were cast down are being raised up and things which had grown old are being made new and that all things are returning to perfection through him from whom they took their origin, even Jesus Christ our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

All Amen.

The Liturgy of the Sacrament

The holy table is covered with a fair linen cloth and the consecrated elements are placed on it in silence.

The Lord's Prayer

All are invited to say the Lord's prayer in their mother tongue.

Priest Let us pray with confidence as our Saviour has taught us,

All Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come; thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Invitation to Communion

Priest Jesus is the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world.
Blessed are those who are called to his supper.

All Lord, I am not worthy to receive you, but only say the word, and I shall be healed.

All are invited to come forward to the rail, standing or kneeling as you prefer. If you normally receive the bread or wine in your own church, then please put your hands out to receive.

If you would prefer to receive a blessing please cross your arms and let the priest know your name when he or she approaches.

The Conclusion

Priest O Lord Jesus Christ, Son of the living God, set your passion, cross and death between your judgement and our souls, now and in the hour of our death. Grant mercy and grace to the living, rest to the departed, to your Church peace and concord and to us sinners forgiveness, and everlasting life and glory; for, with the Father and the Holy Spirit, you are alive and reign, God, now and for ever.

All Amen.

The ministers and people depart in silence.
